DOUGIE MACLEAN

Dougie MacLean has built an international reputation as songwriter, composer and extraordinary performer on his own terms. This talent has taken his performance to concerts and festivals all over the world and to the stage of Carnegie Hall in New York. Concerts have included Culzean Castle (alongside Lou Reed), BBC Hogmanay in Edinburgh Castle with James Taylor, and Proms in the Park (with the BBC Symphony Orchestra & Youth Choir).

His songs have been covered by hosts of artists including Scottish stars Paolo Nutini & Amy MacDonal, Irish greats Ronan Keating, Mary & Frances Black, Dolores Keane and Deanta, and Grammy award winning US country singer Kathy Mattea, and his Caledonia has topped the Scottish charts and become one of Scotland's most popular contemporary songs. His music has been used in Hollywood films (eg Last of the Mohicans), TV Drama (eg BBC's A Mug's Game) and he has been the subject of three BBC TV Specials (The Land-Songs of Dougie MacLean, SongRoads and Clann na Mara- Children of the Sea).

Dougie has recently received two prestigious Tartan Clef Awards, an OBE in the New Years List and has entered the Scottish Music Hall of Fame.
